

(ಶ್ರೀ ಎಂ. ಮಾದಯ್ಯ)

ಮಂತ್ರಿಗಳೂ, ಶ್ರೀ ಜಗಜ್ಜೀವನ ರಾಂರವರೂ ಅದರಲ್ಲಿ ಪಾತ್ರ ವಹಿಸಿದ್ದುದೂ, ಸೆಮಿನಾರ್‌ನಲ್ಲಿ ಏನು ಯೋಜನೆ ಮಾಡಿದರೂ, ಏನು ನಡೆಯಿತು ಎಂಬುದೂ ಈ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆಯನ್ನು ಕೇಳುವುದಕ್ಕೆ ಮುಂಚೆ ತಿಳಿದಿದ್ದರೂ ಏಕೆ ಪ್ರತಿನಿಧಿಗಳನ್ನು ಅಲ್ಲಿಗೆ ಕಳುಹಿಸಲಿಲ್ಲ ಎಂಬುದು ನನ್ನ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆ.

Mr. SPEAKER.—How does it arise out of this?

Sri M. MADIHA.—Sir, I have put a specific question—whether it has come to the notice of the State Government that the Central Government have conducted a Seminar. I am trying to know whether the Government were aware of the Seminar conducted by the Central Government at Delhi and if that is so, did they send any representative.

Sri T. CHANNIAH.—There is the definite answer 'No'. About sending a representative to that Seminar, that was considered unnecessary.

Sri M. MADIHA.—At least now, have the Government come to know what has been done at the Delhi Seminar?

Sri T. CHANNIAH.—The proceedings of that Seminar were not sent to the Government of Mysore and we are not aware of the same.

Sri M. MADIHA.—It is stated in the answer that the State Government have made arrangements for conducting a similar Seminar at Mysore. May I know whether the Mysore Government will at least now try to get all the information about the Delhi Seminar before the Seminar is conducted in the Mysore State?

Sri T. CHANNIAH.—The Seminar conducted at Delhi was of a different type. But the Seminar which was proposed to be conducted at Mysore is different. It was proposed that the Mysore Seminar should deal with the work relating to amelioration of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

Sri M. MADIHA.—Sir, my question is specific. A similar Seminar at Mysore will be conducted. At a Seminar conducted by the Central Government, the problems dealt with were removal of untouchability and the caste system. A similar Seminar is to be arranged to be held by the Mysore Government. I want to know whether the State Government is proposing to send the Commissioner of Depressed Classes to Delhi to obtain information as to the subjects that were discussed at the Delhi Seminar and see that a similar procedure is followed at Mysore.

Sri T. CHANNIAH.—The Hon'ble Member has stated that the Seminar at Delhi dealt with the problems of casteism and untouchability. The problems that are proposed to be dealt with in the Mysore Seminar will not be that. The main problem to be tackled at Mysore is about education, improvement of economic conditions and the social advancement of Scheduled Castes. These are the three points on which the Seminar at Mysore was proposed to be held. It is not on casteism and untouchability.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Hon'ble Member can discuss that subject with the Hon'ble Minister.

Sri M. MADIHA.—May I know whether in the Mysore Seminar, the items discussed at the Delhi Seminar will be included?

Sri T. CHANNIAH.—I have answered, Sir, that the subjects discussed at Delhi are different from the subjects that are proposed to be discussed at Mysore.

(A number of Members rose.)

Mr. SPEAKER.—There is not much time to put the other questions. Since the Government is going to hold a Seminar, it is better to discuss with the Minister and come to an understanding.
